

Community Educational Event

Hosted by Ashbrook Independent School

FENTANYL AWARENESS PRESENTATION

Thursday, Nov. 30 @ 6:30-8pm

Concerned about the continued rise of fentanyl-related accidents and deaths in Oregon, Ashbrook is offering this free community educational event in conjunction with the Corvallis Police Department and the Benton County Sheriff's Office. Teen accidents happen because fentanyl hides in plain sight and can look like a harmless aspirin.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Why is fentanyl so dangerous?
- Local data and trends
- Tips for those with teens and children in the household
- Naloxone kits available

← Lethal dose

Location: Ashbrook Theater

4045 SW Research Way, Corvallis

RSVP at ashbrookschool.org/Nov30

and indicate if you are interested in a Naloxone kit

This free presentation is open to ALL area families but due to the sensitive nature of the topic, this is an adults-only presentation. Childcare is not provided.
